Warm

The characters in Warm move back and forth through time to capture past images and actions, to make sense of the present.

Two men meet on the docks. Have they met before? How long ago was it? They once knew each other, and it was here that they met a woman – who is suddenly standing in front of them. It's hot out, and she wants to go swimming. Old feelings are reawakened, including jealousy. Time is eternal, yet frozen in one moment.

Jon Fosse

Nobel Prize-winner Jon Fosse (b. 1959), is widely considered one of the most important writers of our time. For almost forty years, he has written novels, plays, poems, stories, essays, and children's books. His award-winning work has been translated into more than fifty languages and his plays have been staged over a thousand times all over the world.

Jon Fosse grew up in Strandebarm, a small village in the western part of Norway, he now lives in the Grotten, an honorary residence in Oslo, as well as in Hainburg, Austria, and Frekhaug, Norway.

Fosse was awarded the Nobel Prize in Literature in 2023 and has received numerous prizes, both in Norway and internationally through the years.
